

EVERY DAY with PURPOSE
FIND IT. LIVE IT. BE SIGNIFICANT.

COURSE WORKBOOK

WELCOME!

So glad you're joining me, Dr. John C. Maxwell for my online course!

I want you to enjoy this journey. I want you to laugh. I want you to cry. I want you to experience significance in your life.

Take good notes, and share them with the people in your life that need to hear this message. But most of all, know that this experience is about you. It's about you discovering your purpose.

Let's get started!

Your Friend,

John

EVERY DAY with PURPOSE
FIND IT. LIVE IT. BE SIGNIFICANT.

LESSON ONE

DISCOVER YOUR PURPOSE

LESSON 1

DISCOVER YOUR PURPOSE

Average vs. Purposeful Living:

“The thing I have noticed about average people is they don’t want anybody else to rise above average.”

- DR. JOHN C. MAXWELL

Purpose is essential to a person’s life. It’s the anchor that holds you during a storm. It’s your north star that guides you when you’re just absolutely pretty well confused, or everybody around you is confused.

How do you become an _____ purpose person?

Once we learn to be _____ with our life, and then live our purpose, we can be an every day purpose person

There are two great days in any person’s life:

1. The day you were _____.
2. The day you discover why.

Three questions you need to answer:

1. What do I _____ about?
2. What do I _____ about?
3. What do I _____ about?

Two ways to find purpose:

1. Through your _____.
2. Through your giftedness.

If you’re going to find your purpose and live it out, you have to not only ask yourself, “What am I passionate about?”
You have to ask yourself, “What am I gifted in? What do I do well?”

When you find your purpose, you find your _____.

Some people look at things as they are and ask, "Why?" And some people look at some things as they could be and ask, "Why not?"

When you find your why, you find your _____.

When you find you why, you also find your _____.

Discipline is a result of having a reason to be disciplined.

When you don't have a reason to be disciplined. If you're just being disciplined for discipline's sake, you're never going to achieve and do and stick with and complete and finish the task that's before you.

You need to be able to fly and here's why. Everything worthwhile is _____.

1. Your purpose gives you the reason to go up hill.
2. Your passion is the fuel.
3. Your giftedness determines how high uphill you can climb.

What makes you sing?

Using my gifts _____ my purpose.

What would happen every day of your life if you knew why you were here? If you knew what your gifts were? If you intentionally took those things that you are gifted in and you put them under your purpose and every day you intentionally added value to people?

Intentionally adding value to people _____ compounds my gifts.

You'll begin to _____ things that average people don't think.

You'll begin to _____ things, that average people don't do.

You'll begin to _____ results that average people don't reap.

People think you only sing when you're receiving something.
But, the greatest singers are the ones who sing when they're preparing to give something.

What makes you cry?

I cry about people who have not found their purpose and therefore they live unintentional lives.

There's a relationship between finding your purpose and _____.

What makes you dream?

If your dream is just big enough for you, it's not a big enough dream. It ought to _____.

Have you got a story too?

My goal is for you to begin writing your story. It's a beautiful story and by the way, you're the only one who can write it. Don't read your story. If you read your story, that means someone else wrote it. Only you can write your story.
